If you are feeling a bit sick or are afraid of getting sick, a simple nod of the head with the greeting 'Peace' is quite sufficient. Please not to be offended if someone dose not want to shake hands. Its also Never appropriate to call out 'God Bless You' when someone sneezes in Church, if your right by them a quiet whisper is sufficient.

RCIA CLASS. DO YOU DESIRE THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION?

Classes began in the Fall, classes resume January 15, 6:30—8:00 pm in the School/ If You desire to make Confirmation at the Easter Vigil and need classes call Mrs. Callahan 732-495-7779 for more information.

WINTER WEATHER AND CHURCH CLOSINGS

It would be an extraordinary weather event that would cancel Sunday Masses. Daily Masses Mon.-Fri. IF there is heavy snow, or icy conditions that make driving dangerous, we will often make the call to cancel morning or evening Mass, because it is often difficult to properly keep the parking lots and walks safe. (It is Not God's will that anyone should break their hip.) So in bad weather call ahead to make sure there is Mass. If there is No message on machine, then we will have Mass, or Adoration.

CATECHISM LESSON:
The Baptism of Jesus Christ
From: WWW. UNAMSANCTAMCA THOLICAM. COM
In the New Testament, Christ is baptized by John the Baptist. Many have wondered why He chose to do this, since He had no sin to repent or be cleansed of; Christ Himself says that He submits to baptism to "fulfill all righteousness" (Matt. 3:15). There are several reasons why Jesus consented to a baptism that, as John the Baptist noted, He did not need:

It is a manifestation of His self-emptying and identification with humanity, which stands in need of God's grace and forgiveness. Similarly, he was circumcised according to the precepts of the Mosaic Law, even though circumcision symbolized a cutting off of sin, which Jesus did not have.

It inaugurates His messianic mission, wherein He is anointed by the Spirit for His ministry (Luke 4:16-20).

In His baptism, Christ sacramentally sanctifies the waters for us, prefiguring the baptism He was to later inaugurate.
As St. Ambrose of Milan teaches, "The Lord was baptized, not to be cleansed himself but to cleanse the waters, so that those waters, cleansed by the flesh of Christ which knew no sin, might have the power of baptism. Whoever comes, therefore, to the washing of Christ lays aside his sins" (Commentary on Luke 2:83, A.D. 389).

His baptism reveals what occurs spiritually every time a Christian is baptized. When we come to the Holy Font, the heavens are opened, the Spirit descends, and the Father pronounces, "You are my beloved son."
St. Aphrahaat says, "From baptism we receive the Spirit of Christ. At that same moment in which the priests invoke the Spirit. heaven opens, and he descends and rests upon the waters, and those who are baptized are clothed in him " (Treatises 6:14:4, A.D. 340).
The baptism of Jesus begins His public ministry. Immediately after this, He goes into the wilderness to face the temptations of the devil

"Truly, truly, 1 say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God." -John 3:5 In the birth by water and the Spirit, Jesus himself led the way in this birth, drawing down upon the water, by his own baptism, the Holy Spirit; so that in all things he became the firstborn of those who are spiritually born again, and gave the name of brethren to those who partook in a birth like to his own by water and the Spirit" -St. Gregory of Nyssa, Against Eunomius 2:8,A D. 382

Sacraments of Christian Initiation
Of the seven sacraments, Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist are referred to as the "sacraments of Christian initiation" because it is by reception of these three sacraments that a person is fully received into communion with the Church and is made a partaker in the divine life of Christ.
"The sharing in the divine nature given to men through the grace of Christ bears a certain likeness to the origin, development. and nourishing of natural life...by means of these sacraments of Christian initiation, they thus receive in increasing measure the treasures of divine life and advance toward the perfection of charity" (CCC 1212).
Of the three sacraments of initiation, Baptism and Confirmation are unrepeatable and give the recipient an indelible mark.

Baptism - Etymology
The word "baptize" means to plunge or immerse; the "plunge" into the water symbolizes the catechumen's burial into Christ's death, from which he rises up with Him as a "new creation" (2 Cor. 5:17).
Baptism was prefigured several places in the Old Testament. The Church Fathers saw it symbolized:

In creation, where water was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit (Gen.l :2)

In the Flood of Noah, where he and his family "were saved through water" (1 Pet. 3:20).
"The waters of the great flood you made a sign of the waters of Baptism, that make an end of sin and a new beginning of goodness."

In the crossing of the Israelites through the Red Sea, where the people were set free from slavery and the Egyptians were washed away (Ex. 14).

In the crossing of the Jordan River by the Israelites, where the People of God entered into the Promised Land, an image of eternal life (Jos. 3).

The cleansing of Naaman the Syrian in the River Jordan (2 Kings 5:14).
"It was not for nothing that Naaman of old. when suffering from leprosy, was purified upon his being baptized, but [this served] as an indication to us. For as we are lepers in sin, we are made clean, by means of the sacred water and the invocation of the Lord, from our old transgressions, being spiritually regenerated as newborn babes (St. Irenaeus, Fragment 34, A.D. 190).
In all of these examples, the Church Fathers saw prefigure-ments of Holy Baptism, where sin is washed away and we are "bom again" in Christ. In Baptism, we "put on the new man", as St. Paul says (Col. 3:10).
